Due to the current situation it has been decided that the Autumn Show will be a much smaller event than before. Consequently we have temporarily removed some of the classes and all of the school entries

The Gardening Club would like to thank the local businesses who have supported us and we hope to return to providing printed schedules for future shows.

RULES OF THE SHOW

1. The Show will be conducted in accordance with the Rules, Standards and Definitions contained in the RHS Horticultural Show Handbook 2008 Edition and the 2009 NAFAS Competitions Manual except where varied by this schedule. These handbooks will be available on the Show Secretary's table during the Show.
2. Exhibits in classes 1-25 and 29-47 must have been cultivated by the exhibitor for at least 2 months. The Committee reserves the right to visit any exhibitor's garden before or after the Show.
3. Exhibitors may not enter more than two entries in any class and may not take more than one prize in any class.
4. Only one exhibitor may enter from one garden in any one class.
5. For the purposes of this Show, a 'novice' is an exhibitor who has never won a first prize in the relevant section of the Autumn Show.
6. First prize winning items in any previous Congresbury Show are not eligible for re-entry in subsequent shows.
7. For the benefit of the viewing public, exhibitors are asked to label plant varieties/cultivars where possible.
8. Any exhibit that does not conform to the Show Rules may be disqualified.
9. Any protest must be in writing and delivered to the Show Secretary by 3.00pm on the day of the Show. The decision of the judges shall be final in respect of the relative merits of exhibits and they have the power to withhold any prizes if they think the exhibits are unworthy. The Show Secretary reserves the right to refer any other points in dispute to the Committee.
10. The Committee will not accept responsibility for loss or damage to property or exhibits. Reasonable care will be taken.
11. Trophies are awarded for one year only and must be returned to the Show Secretary in clean and undamaged condition by 1st September 2022
